Farmhouse

An exceptionally large and imposing double-fronted townhouse in the centre of the village with an equally large amount of land for development into a pool and surrounding garden. Full of character and offering many traditional features such as high ceilings, traditional Maltese tiles, stained-glass windows, arched rooms, beams and a traditional courtyard. A grand staircase leads up to five bedrooms and a second stair leading from the rear of the courtyard leads to terraces where there is the possibility to build a further five bedrooms making this a perfect opportunity to create a boutique hotel.
