Down a quiet lane on the edge of Għarb, celebrated for being one of the most unspoilt villages on the island, yet just a few hundred metres from the church, this exceptional villa benefits from astonishing views of the sea across spring-green countryside from all its main windows, terraces and sizeable gardens.

It's a 180° panorama that includes both the San Dimitri Chapel standing strikingly alone in sweeping fields and the Ta Gordan lighthouse, an icon in white on one of the island's tallest flat-topped hills, the
