GOZO REAL ESTATE

Description

This spacious house of character is perched on the cliff edge with 180 degree views across countryside and with distant sea views. Entrance via a private courtyard leads into a wide open hallway with room for a small office. Off this hallway is a very large master bedroom with several built in wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom. The main hall also leads to a spacious combined living, dining and fully fitted kitchen, all with views over the pool area and views beyond through french windows. Off the kitchen is a utility area. A beautifully built sweeping cantilever staircase leads upstairs to three en-suite bedrooms, the main one with views across the valley. Off the hallway there is a small storage room and a separate small laundry storage room. A straight staircase leads to the roof level.

The same wide main staircase also leads downstairs to a massive self-contained semi-basement which comprises a study area, a very large games room, a large second lounge and dining room, full bathroom and fully fitted kitchen. French windows and steps lead up to the pool area.
